

2025 Duck race results

The winner of the duck race was

Duck Number 508 wasn't sold

2nd Duck was 477 wasn't sold

3rd Duck was 214 bought by Jean Townend

The duck race raised a total of £707

This is broken down by
£216 by the Queens Head
£295 by Catherine Dines

The money raised by Duck Sales will be added to the moneys raised by program sales, raffle tickets, advertising and entry fees.

The surplus funds determined after the expenses of running the regatta will be donated to a local charity.

Local registered charities will be invited to apply for a share of the funds, and anyone can nominate with reasons why a Registered charity should be considered once applications have been received the committee will vote to see which charities will be given the funds, this may be split between several organisations.

If anyone wishes to see the regatta accounts, these should be available in December once final figures have been determined.